

Gert Robijns (Sint Truiden 1972)

N/A

Artist description:

Gert Robijns makes minimal interventions to transform simple consumer commodities into new compositions. With his playful constructions and surrealistic interventions, videos and installations, he draws the attention of the viewer to aspects of perseption and intuition. His rearrangement of objects leads the spectator to look at the everyday with astonishment.