

Jan Vanriet (Antwerp 1948)

Room Jan Vanriet, 2011

Three oil on canvas by Jan Vanriet and one drawing by Erich Heckel(1910)
600 x 650 x 1000 mm.

Signed and dated on the back of the museum

Artist description:

Jan Vanriet is a painter and a poet. The roots of his work lie in the violent history of the 20th century. War and destruction, disappearance, persecution, deportation and death are recurrent subjects in his oeuvre. His war-inspired work is closely linked to his own family history. His paintings and drawings are primarily portraits and landscapes; emotionally-charged scenes that bear witness to human shortcomings and the evil that was committed.