

Luc Deleu (1944)

Orban Space, 2012

Installation, different objects included light world map
1000 x 650 x 600 mm.
Signed on the reverse

Artist description:

In 1970 the architect and artist Luc Deleu founded T.O.P. office, a bureau for projects, installations, texts and visionary proposals in the field of architecture and town and country planning. Deleu is concerned with such issues as the growth of the world population, the imbalance in the production of food, and the pollution of the environment. He develops design strategies for the global public space under the name Orban Space.